Anindya Maiti

Security researcher by profession, technology enthusiast by hobby. Strong advocate of a secure, open, and free (as in freedom) Internet. Founder of GeoSNO, a distributed cloud storage service provider. Co-inventor of CryptoMiner, a blockchain-inspired educational board game. When away from computers, I would brew coffee, eat ramen, fix my beater car, and catch Pokémon in national parks.

I am an Assistant Professor of Computer Science and Data Science and Analytics at the University of Oklahoma (OU), where I direct the SecretLab. SecretLab's research focus secretly lies in the areas of privacy and security, information assurance and network security, and applied AI/ML. I also serve as the Outreach Coordinator and Backend Systems Lead for ScooterLab, an NSF-funded micromobility test-bed in San Antonio, TX.

Cool News: Join fellow hackers at Hacklahoma 2024 on February 10-11, 2024. Honored with Outstanding Faculty Award at OU. Serving on the IEEE S&P 2024 program committee.
